23 - 25 June 2024
Third International Behavioural Public Policy Conference

The Third International Behavioural Public Policy Conference will be held at the University of Cambridge from Sunday 23rd – Tuesday 25th June 2024. Expand your network and exchange ideas in the beautiful surroundings of one of the world's leading universities. The conference will be in-person only.

Call for Abstracts, Thematic Sessions, and Policy Sessions

Deadline for (extended) abstract and Session submissions: 15 January 2024
Notification of acceptance: 01 March 2024
Deadline for registration of presenters: 15 April 2024

We invite submissions of empirical and theoretical papers in all areas of Behavioural Public Policy. This third annual conference of the International Behavioural Public Policy Association will feature four formats: invited keynotes, parallel paper sessions, thematic sessions, and policy sessions. All submissions can be made via the conference website: https://ibppc.org/submissions.

Paper Sessions (standard abstract submission)

1. Paper sessions will showcase research from all areas of Behavioural Public Policy and follow a standard presenter + Q&A format.
2. Please submit an extended abstract of your paper (about one page) via the conference website by 15th January 2024. Please select 'Paper Session' on the submission form. More details on possible contents of papers are provided on the website.

Thematic Sessions

1. Thematic Sessions provide a platform for a group of presenters to collectively showcase a range of projects, (case) studies, or papers that are all interconnected under a common theme within the realm of Behavioural Public Policy.
2. Each Thematic Session will have a duration of max. 1.5 hours, and presenters will be tasked with the organization and facilitation of their own sessions.
3. A Thematic Session should consist of at least 3 and no more than 4 presenters. Presenter + Q&A format is accepted but interactive formats (e.g., panel discussions) are highly encouraged and will be prioritised.

4. Please submit Thematic Session proposals via the conference website by 15th January 2024 by selecting 'Thematic Session' on the submission form. More details on what should be included in the Thematic Session proposal are provided on the website.

Policy Sessions

1. Policy Sessions bring together practitioners and academics of BPP. The focus is on empirical and conceptual issues regarding the real-world application of BPP in a wide set of domains and institutional settings, including public administration, municipalities, large organisations, and businesses.
2. Each Policy Session will have a duration of max. 1.5 hours, and presenters will be tasked with the organization and facilitation of their own sessions.
3. A Policy Session must utilise an interactive format (e.g., panel discussion) that will engage the audience. Standard paper presentations will not be considered. The session should consist of at least 3 and no more than 5 panellists.
4. Please submit Policy Session proposals via the conference website by 15th January 2024 by selecting 'Policy Session' on the submission form. More details on what should be included in the Policy Session proposal are provided on the website.
